

Jungle Tomb of the Mummy Bride

Banter Cards

Player 1

- Those cannibals are hot on our trail. They look real hungry!
- An old guy back at camp told you that there's a massive, fist-sized gem hidden within the chest of the Mummy Bride who is buried in one of the jungle's temples.
- Two of the greatest gods in this area had the forms of giant withered bat creatures.
- All the statues of demonic frogs in this jungle creep you out.

Player 2

- There's a pyramid up ahead. You read that the natives steer clear of them.
- The parchment you've been translating says that every thirty years, the sun fully eclipses and the restless spirits of the damned haunt this area.
- One of the cannibals you killed spat a curse at you. Said that "Chilmamia the Black Sun" will swallow you along with the rest of the world.
- The jungle gods were infamous for the human sacrifices they demanded.

Player 3

- The temples in this area are all echoes of forgotten religions with dark evil gods.
- No wonder they call this jungle the Green-Hell... you don't think you can survive another day here.
- Somebody told you back at camp there's a literal heart of gold buried in the chest of one of the mummies in these pyramids.
- You hear there's a new cult in the area... subjugating the cannibals and forcing them to bring them sacrifices and cursed gold.

Player 4

- The Mummy Bride was an ancient priestess, betrothed in body and spirit to her dark gods.
- The natives who worshiped at these old temples relied a lot on spoken blessings to appease their evil gods.
- Keep your eye out on the sky. They say a fanged devil-bat with smoldering red eyes alights on top of these pyramids to carry away the spirits of tortured souls.

GM's Notes

Hand each player their banter card at the start of the session. Give the players some basic background about the adventure -- they're about to explore a dangerous pyramid deep in the heart of the Green-Hell.

Then, each player should take turns reading or paraphrasing a line from their banter card. The scene ends when everyone's gotten through all the information. Encourage them to improv and make it organic!

Player 5

- You feel lucky there are only cannibals chasing us. Anaconda men wiped out the last group of explorers in this area.
- Those frog statues we keep seeing are supposed to mark treasures of the jungle's dark gods.
- The cannibal's dark gods were cruel to those that didn't know their prayers.
- Years ago, you heard that tomb-robbers were chased from this pyramid by a massive, flesh-eating swarm of giant ants... and devoured alive.

Player 6

- You read that all these gods are bad news. Mtaclochil the Lustful One is always tethered to his skinned brides... tethered to him by his veins.
- You swear you saw a two-headed dinosaur while crossing the river back a few miles ago.
- The Mummy Bride was said to be able to control snakes.
- The Mummy Bride's name is Mazalitzli.
